

Contact: Becky Koltz, INSPRA President,

SEPTEMBER 14, 2018

COMMUNICATIONS PROFESSIONALS RECOGNIZED FOR EXCELLENCE

{Local District here} was among those recognized on Sept. 14 during the Illinois Chapter of the National School Public Relations Association Annual Communications Contest.

More than 179 entries in 11 categories were judged by out-of-state public relations professionals. Each entry was evaluated by three judges against a rubric of excellence, with awards given to those that scored within the established ranges for merit and excellence.

[Awardees' name(s) and School District name] received an award of [excellence/merit] in the category of [enter category here].

"We are proud to recognize the winners of the 2018 Communications Contest, whose outstanding work exemplifies the best in school communications throughout the state," said INSPRA President Becky Koltz, who is Coordinator of Communications & Community Relations at Community High School District 94. "Their commitment to and talent for sharing the stories of schools, students and teachers brings communities together to support education.

The mission of INSPRA is to strengthen support for Illinois public schools and improve education for students through responsible public relations.

A total of 121 entries received awards during the awards luncheon, which was held at Maggiano's Little Italy in Oakbrook. See the complete list of winners at www.inspra.org.